Attorney General Ashley Moody News Release

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Attorney General Ashley Moody today announced that registration for the 2019 Human Trafficking Summit is now open. Florida’s annual Human Trafficking Summit brings together local, state and national leaders working to eradicate all forms of human trafficking.

Attorney General Ashley Moody said, “Bringing together leaders in the fight against human trafficking to share ideas and discuss innovative interdiction strategies is vital to advancing our mission of ending this atrocious crime. I want to invite anyone interested in joining this just cause to register for the Summit now.”

Summit attendees will get the opportunity to participate in targeted breakout sessions covering:

- Legal and law enforcement;
- Service delivery;
- Policy and research; and
- Medical and healthcare.

The Summit will be held on Monday, Sept. 30, 2019, at the Hyatt Regency Orlando. Information including the agenda, awards, hotel information and speaker proposals can be found here.

Registration forms can be downloaded here.

The Annual Human Trafficking Summit is hosted by the Florida Attorney General’s Office, the Department of Children and Families, and the Department of Juvenile Justice. This year’s collegiate sponsor is the University of Central Florida.
