Attorney General Ashley Moody News Release

A graphic for the Human Trafficking Summit 2019. It features a circular logo with a map of Florida and the text "HUMAN TRAFFICKING SUMMIT 2019". Below the logo, it says "Monday, September 30, 2019 Hyatt Regency Orlando Orlando, Florida". To the right, there is a section titled "STATEWIDE COUNCIL ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING FLORIDA" with a list of topics: legal/law enforcement, service delivery, policy and research, and medical/healthcare. Below this, it says "To register, or for additional information, please visit www.humantraffickingsummit.com. Registration opens on Monday, July 1, 2019." On the far right, there is a vertical strip with logos for the Attorney General of Florida, the Florida Department of Children and Families, the Florida Department of Juvenile Justice, and the University of Central Florida (UCF).

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Attorney General Ashley Moody today announced that the nomination period for the 2019 Human Trafficking Summit Awards is now open. The host committee is accepting nominees for Floridians who took extraordinary measures to combat human trafficking or help trafficking survivors heal. The awards will be announced at the Human Trafficking Summit this fall.

Attorney General Ashley Moody said, “I am honored to serve alongside people committed to our mission of ending this form of modern-day slavery. If you know someone who is dedicated to the fight to stop human trafficking or strives to help survivors of this atrocious crime, please nominate them so we can recognize their efforts.”

The following four awards will be presented during the summit:

- Community Advocate of the Year;
- Law Enforcement Officer of the Year;
- Prosecutor of the Year; and
- Survivor Advocate of the Year.

Award nominations should be submitted to OAGHT.Summit@MyFloridaLegal.com.

The Summit will be held on Monday, Sept. 30, 2019, at the Hyatt Regency Orlando. Information including the agenda, hotel information, registration information and speaker proposals can be found here. Speaker proposals for the Summit will be accepted through the end of the month. Registration opens on July 1, 2019.

The Annual Human Trafficking Summit is hosted by the Florida Attorney General's Office, the Department of Children and Families, and the Department of Juvenile Justice. This year's collegiate sponsor is the University of Central Florida.
