Attorney General Ashley Moody News Release

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Attorney General Ashley Moody is issuing a Consumer Alert highlighting online cyber safety tips for Floridians during National Cybersecurity Awareness Month. The average American spends more than six hours per day online where cybercriminals lurk to prey on unsuspecting users. Attorney General Moody is providing useful tips to help Floridians stay safe and secure online.

Attorney General Ashley Moody said, “Cybercriminals are brazen, and will go to great lengths to access your personal or financial information. This National Cybersecurity Awareness Month, I want to remind Floridians to keep their security software updated and be on the lookout for fraudulent messages and malware attacks.”

Useful tips to help prevent cyberattacks include:

- Keep software up-to-date, always installing the latest security updates for devices;
- Create unique passwords for different sites, using a series collage of numbers, characters, capitalization and special characters;
- Enable trusted two-factor authentication services whenever possible;
- Be careful clicking on links, especially from untrusted sources; and
- Never access personal apps or files when using public WiFi.
