The Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI) was established (Section 16.54, F.S.) as part of the "HELP STOP CRIME" program and is administered by the Bureau of Criminal Justice Programs.

In addition, the bureau administers the Crime Stoppers and Urban League grant programs, the annual National Conference on Preventing Crime, the Florida Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys, the Law Enforcement Death Benefits program, the Safe Neighborhoods Act, the Convenience Business Security Act, and the Florida Human Trafficking Summit.

Our website, www.fcpti.com allows us to market FCPTI nationally and allows for on-line course registrations. Currently, approximately 99% of all registrations are received from on line registration, which reduced the costs of paper and mailings.

The goals and objectives of FCPTI are:

- Develop and maintain a standardized, comprehensive crime prevention, victim services, and school resource officers training curriculum throughout the state.
- Keep victims, practitioners in the field of crime prevention, and school resource officers up to date on new prevention methods, ideas, and problems in crime prevention.
- Assist in making crime prevention an integral part of law enforcement and the community.
- Continually develop and implement new and innovative training programs.

Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI)

FCPTI courses are designed to provide comprehensive crime prevention training to Florida's law enforcement community, school resource officers, victim advocates, citizenry and industry to enable them to control crime by denying criminal opportunity and behavior. Authorized in Section 16.54, F.S., the FCPTI Revolving Trust Fund is self-sustaining and is funded by tuition payments paid by training program participants. Training schedules may be accessed at www.fcpti.com.

Numerous practitioner designation programs are offered to include: Crime Prevention, Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design, Elderly Crime, School Resource Officer (SRO), and Victim Services. The Attorney General's Office is the primary source of training for crime prevention, victim services, elderly issues, and school resource officers (SRO) statewide and is a national leader in these fields.

Individuals trained by FCPTI play a vital role through community education in reducing crime and victimization statewide. Curriculum development is coordinated with the respective organizational entities to which they relate (i.e., Florida Association of

To maintain the designation, practitioners are required to attend refresher courses every three years. There are approximately 4600 crime prevention practitioners throughout the state. Designed for crime prevention and community oriented policing officers, planners and architects, the designation provides officers and civilians with the skills necessary to deliver comprehensive CPTED programs to Florida's residential and commercial industry, as well as local government.

- 215 designations awarded

Elderly Services Practitioner Designation Training

In 1986, the Attorney General's Office began training on elder issues with a series of one-day workshops across the state on "Fraud Against the Elderly." This led to the design of a five-day "Crimes Against the Elderly" course that was eventually adopted by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) as an "Advanced" course. With a growing senior population, there was an increase in elderly criminal victimization such as financial exploitation, abuse and neglect. To meet the demand for further training and a designation, the Attorney General's Office expanded training for law enforcement and those professionals who interact with this population on a daily basis. These courses provide participants with detailed information on the role of the law enforcement officer in combating senior crime, in establishing prosecutorial cases, and a comprehensive look at abuse and neglect.

To earn the Florida Elder Crime Practitioner Designation (FECPP), a participant must successfully complete eighty-eight hours of instruction offered through FCPTI within a period of three consecutive years. The requirement includes the forty-hour Crimes Against the Elderly course and two twenty-four-hour courses.

- Two elderly classes were held with 39 attendees.

School Resource Officer Practitioner Designation Training

The objective of the School Resource Officer (SRO) training is to enhance the skills of school-based professionals who deal with juvenile issues on a daily basis. The classes are designed for SROs, school administrators and staff, and other professionals who work with students in campus settings. The SRO curriculum includes an advanced training (i.e., salary incentive) course that has been approved by the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. Officers have the opportunity to earn the SRO practitioner designation with completion of the basic SRO course and an additional 90 hours of FCPTI juvenile-related courses. 344 officers have obtained the designation since its inception in 1988. In addition, a new “SRO Specialist” program was developed for those SROs that cannot attend the required hours for a designation. This year’s SRO training activities included:

Courses	10
Attendees	403
Designations awarded	21
Classroom Hours	296

Victim Services Practitioner Designation Training

Victim training programs are designed for novice and veteran victim advocates and allied professionals to enhance crisis intervention skills and increase awareness of available services and resources. The curriculum consists of victim services practitioner designation classes, advanced advocate training, and issue briefings. The designation program (VSPD) is a five-day course designed to improve the knowledge, skills, and abilities of service providers. This designation is valid for four years and may be renewed by providing evidence of 24 hours of non-agency victim related training during the four-year period, including advanced advocate training. Approximately 6500 designations have been awarded since inception of the program in 1995. Advanced advocate training is designed to enhance the skills and abilities of experienced victim service providers. Issue briefings focus on current issues from a local perspective. Highlights:

- An anonymous tip to Central Florida Crimeline led to an investigation of a University of Central Florida student for illegal possession of a fully automatic firearm. The investigation identified the suspect and lead to the recovery of an AR-15, with a bump fire stock. This allowed the firearm to shoot 19 rounds with a single pull of the trigger. The firearm was recovered in the suspect’s vehicle on campus and the student was charged with Possession of Machine Gun and Import/Sell/Distribute/Possess Bump Fire Stock.
- Following a 3-month undercover drug investigation based on a tip received by Crime Stoppers of Marion County, a subject was arrested for Possession with the Intent to Distribute, Sell, or Manufacture Cocaine; Possession of a Controlled Substance without a Prescription (Fentanyl); Possession and Use of Drug Paraphernalia; and Driving While License Suspended.
- A tip regarding a suspect wanted for attempted murder in Highlands County was received by Heartland Crime Stoppers, Inc. The suspect, who had fled to North Carolina, was apprehended by the Highlands County Sheriff’s Office, in coordination with other law enforcement agencies, as a direct result of the tip. Additionally, the suspect was connected to numerous crimes in North Carolina.
- On April 6, 2019, two tips were submitted to Central Ohio Crime Stoppers. They both stated that a suspect in an Aggravated Vehicular Homicide was a new tenant in an apartment in Milton, Florida (Santa Rosa County). They stated the suspect was driving a gold Chevy Suburban that had duct tape all over with noticeable damage. The vehicle had Ohio license plates and the suspect had changed their appearance after moving in and was using a different name. After a brief investigation, Milton Police Department arrested the suspect for warrants out of Franklin County, Ohio for two counts of Aggravated Vehicular Homicide, Operating Motor Vehicle While Impaired and other traffic charges. The suspect was accused of hitting and killing a woman, leaving the scene, had a blood alcohol level of .138 and had only been out of prison for a couple of months from their last DUI conviction. The suspect was under a five-year suspension of their license at the time of the crash. The joint effort between Central Ohio Crime Stoppers, Santa Rosa County Crime Stoppers, Inc. and law enforcement ensured the suspect was located, properly identified, arrested, extradited and faces prosecution. Central Ohio Crime Stoppers and Santa Rosa Crime Stoppers also worked extensively to ensure payment to the two brave tipsters who sent the information and ultimately were responsible for the arrest.

Twenty-six Crime Stoppers organizations currently serve sixty of Florida’s sixty-seven counties. The Crime Stoppers organizations work closely with law enforcement agencies, who successfully investigate and solve crimes. The Attorney General’s staff works closely with the Florida Association of Crime Stoppers, Inc., and the recipient organizations regarding the use of Crime Stoppers funds. The Attorney General’s staff performs annual training and orientation to assist the organizations in understanding statutory and regulatory spending requirements of state funds. ---

The claimant is notified of the division’s decision in writing when the claim is determined to be ineligible. The claimant is granted the opportunity to appeal the decision within 60 days of the denial by submitting a petition which meets the requirements of the uniform rules of procedure, pursuant to §120.569 or §120.57, F.S. A Notice of Rights form is included with each denial notice and may act as a petition. The claimant may submit additional evidence with the petition proving eligibility, and based on this new information, the claim may be reconsidered. When a satisfactory petition is received, it is reviewed to determine whether material facts are at issue which would require the evidence to be weighed by an impartial hearing officer in an evidentiary hearing. If there are no material facts at issue, then the claimant is granted an informal hearing and given the opportunity to make an oral presentation to the Division Director when there are no material facts at issue. This year’s activities included:

New Appeals	158
Appeals Closed	149
Final Orders Issued	4
Circuit Court Cases	0
Circuit Court Cases Resolved	0

Legal Counsel – Subrogation

---

Whenever a person files a claim for victim compensation benefits, he or she must sign the application form which includes a repayment requirement. That statement says that if the claimant (or person signing the application) receives a victim compensation award and also receives payment as a result of the same criminal incident from another source, he or she must repay any amount received from the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund. The statutory basis for this requirement is §960.16, F.S. This year’s subrogation activities included:

- 47 cases settled
- $151,682 recovered

Information and Referral

The bureau maintains a toll-free information and referral service (1-800-226-6667) using an Automated Call Distribution phone system. Callers are provided access to general information regarding the compensation programs, eligibility and benefit criteria, claim status and payment information, and referrals to local victim services, criminal appeals, and the address confidentiality program. The bureau also maintains designated lines for treatment providers and bilingual callers. Information and referral services are provided Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. with an after-hours answering service available 24 hours a day.

During the 2018-19 SFY, 157,051 calls were processed.

escapees, inmates, or patients of state institutions under the Department of Children and Family Services, the Department of Health, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the Department of Corrections, or the Agency for Persons with Disabilities.
