Of the $50, the clerk of the court retains $1 for administrative purposes and forwards the remaining $49 for deposit into the CCTF. Appendix B provides a comparison of payments and collections by county and judicial circuit.

Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys (General Revenue)

The Council is funded through general revenue with FY 2011-2012 appropriation of $50,000. One half was allocated to the Office of the Attorney General for administrative staffing and the other half was for travel, meeting costs, public notices, printing, and other operational expenses of the Council.

BUREAU OF ADVOCACY AND GRANTS MANAGEMENT

The bureau provides regional victim advocacy and appellate notification to victims of crime, provides crisis response training and coordination, and also administers the address confidentiality program and federal Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) assistance grants. As part of the outreach and clearinghouse functions, the bureau maintains a Victim Services Directory of victim service providers by judicial circuit, and maintains the Adult and Child Sexual Assault Protocols: Initial Forensic Physical Examination (protocols) for the initial forensic physical examination of adults and children who are sexually assaulted.

In order to better serve the public, save time, save money and improve access, the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) has begun the process of developing an on-line Grants Management System for use with the VOCA assistance grants. Work on the project began in May 2011 and is anticipated to continue into the next fiscal year.

Address Confidentiality Program

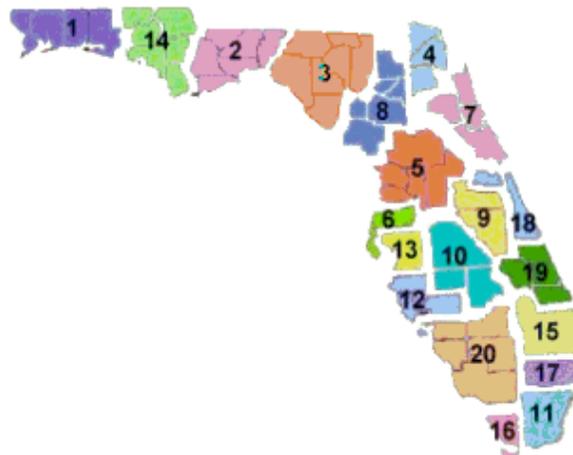

Pursuant to §741.401 through §741.465, F.S., the Address Confidentiality Program (ACP) provides a substitute mailing address for relocated victims of domestic violence and/or stalking, with this office serving as legal agent for receipt of mail and service of process. In addition, staff provides training and certifies applicant assistants statewide to assist eligible victims in applying for participation in the program. ACP is also intended to prevent public access to client information through public records, such as voting records. This year's activities included:

- 925 active participants
- 122 new applications processed
- 55 renewal applications processed

Advocacy

Regional victim advocates represent the Attorney General's Office throughout the state, providing a direct conduit between local victim service organizations and this office to promote victims' rights. To advance the goal of ensuring these rights are afforded to the state's diverse populations, specific outreach initiatives are directed toward the Haitian and Spanish speaking populations in south Florida. Additionally, regional victim advocates:

- Schedule and provide training/presentations related to Division of Victims Services programs, such as the Address Confidentiality Program, Victim Compensation, Identity Theft, Economic Crime, CyberSafety and Domestic Violence Relocation. In 2011-2012, 1,094 trainings/presentations were conducted.
- Over 59,000 students and over 1,600 parents attended CyberSafety presentations.

The Bureau of Advocacy and Grants Management continued to administer the VOCA funding during the 2011-2012 fiscal year. The VOCA grant period is based on the federal fiscal year, October through September, and the grant process begins in January each year. Appendix C is a listing of the amounts awarded for VOCA subgrantees during the 2011-2012 time period.

The state's allocation of the federal fund is based on Florida's population in relation to all the other states and designated territories. Federal guidelines that govern the use of VOCA funds at the state level may be viewed online at <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/ovc/voca/vaguide.htm>. Additional program information is available online at <http://myfloridalegal.com>; select "Crime Victims Services" from the "Programs" drop-down menu and then choose "Advocacy & VOCA Grants" from the list. BUREAU OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROGRAMS

In 1982, the Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI) was established (Section 16.54, F.S.) in the Office of the Attorney General as part of the “HELP STOP CRIME” program. The “HELP STOP CRIME” Program was originally housed in the Governor’s Office until 1976 when it was transferred to the Attorney General’s Office. The Bureau of Criminal Justice Programs was established within the Division of Victim Services in 1991 and provides statewide public education and training programs for law enforcement personnel, school resource officers, victim advocates and other interested persons on crime prevention initiatives, school-based officer programs, victim advocacy and related criminal justice areas.

In addition, the bureau administers the Crime Stoppers and Urban League grant programs, the annual National Conference on Preventing Crime in the Black Community, the Florida Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys, the Direct Services Organization, the Law Enforcement Death Benefits program, the Safe Neighborhoods Act, and the Convenience Business Security Act.

Our website, www.fcpti.com allows us to market FCPTI nationally and allows for on- line course registrations. Currently, approximately 95% of all registrations are received from on-line registration, which reduced the costs of paper and mailings.

The goals and objectives of FCPTI are:

- Develop and maintain a standardized, comprehensive crime prevention, victim services, and school resource officers training curriculum throughout the state.
- Keep practitioners in the field of crime prevention, victims and school resource officers up to date on new prevention methods, ideas, and problems in crime prevention.
- Assist in making crime prevention an integral part of law enforcement.
- Continually develop and implement new and innovative training programs.

Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI)

FCPTI courses are designed to provide comprehensive crime prevention training to Florida’s law enforcement community, school resource officers, victim advocates, citizenry and industry to enable them to control crime by denying criminal opportunity and behavior. Authorized in Section 16.54, F.S., the FCPTI Revolving Trust Fund is self-sustaining and is funded by tuition payments paid by training program participants. Training schedules may be accessed at www.fcpti.com.

Numerous practitioner designation programs are offered to include; Crime Prevention, Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design, Elderly Crime, School Resource Officer (SRO), and Victim Services. In addition, this office provides a certification to law enforcement officers in Convenience Store Security. The Attorney General’s Office is the primary source of training for crime prevention, victim services, elderly issues, and school resource officers (SRO) statewide and is a leader nationally.

Individuals trained by FCPTI play a vital role through community education in reducing crime and victimization statewide. Curriculum development is coordinated with the respective organizational entities to which they relate (i.e., Florida Association of School Resource Officers, Florida Crime Prevention Association, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, and Florida Department of Education). This year's activities included:

- 81 courses
- 3438 attendees
- 829 designations awarded
- 1701 classroom hours

Crime Prevention Practitioner Designation Training

The crime prevention practitioner designation (FCPP) is awarded to those individuals who successfully complete a series of three comprehensive crime prevention courses offered through FCPTI. The curriculum includes instruction in basic crime prevention, commercial crime prevention, and residential crime prevention. To maintain the designation, practitioners are required to attend refresher courses every three years. There are approximately 4000 crime prevention practitioners throughout the state. Over 25 percent of the state's law enforcement officers have received crime prevention training. Additional crime prevention training is evolving to respond to current trends and conditions. This year's activities included:

- 40 courses
- 2248 attendees
- 171 designations awarded
- 958 classroom hours

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design Practitioner Designation Training

In 2004, the designation of Florida Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design Practitioner (FCP) was made available to individuals who successfully completed sixty-four hours of comprehensive CPTED courses offered through FCPTI. Designed for crime prevention and community oriented policing officers, planners and architects, the designation provides officers and civilians with the skills necessary to deliver comprehensive CPTED programs to Florida's residential and commercial industry, as well as local government.

- 246 designations awarded

Elderly Services Practitioner Designation Training

In 1986, the Attorney General's Office began training on elder issues with a series of one-day workshops across the state on "Fraud Against the Elderly." This led to the design of a five-day "Crimes Against the Elderly" course that was eventually adopted by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) as an "Advanced" course. With a growing senior population, there was an increase in elderly criminal victimization such as financial exploitation, abuse and neglect. To meet the demand for further training and a designation, the Attorney General's Office expanded training for law enforcement and those professionals who interact with this population on a daily basis. These courses provide participants with detailed information on the role of the law enforcement officer in combating senior crime, in establishing prosecutorial cases, and a comprehensive look at abuse and neglect.

To earn the Florida Elder Crime Practitioner Designation (FECPC), a participant must successfully complete eighty-eight hours of instruction offered through FCPTI within a period of three consecutive years. The requirement includes the forty-hour Crimes Against the Elderly course and two twenty-four hour courses. It is recommended that the forty-hour course be completed first.

- 17 designations awarded

School Resource Officer Practitioner Designation Training

The objective of the School Resource Officer (SRO) training is to enhance the skills of school-based professionals who deal with juvenile issues on a daily basis. The classes are designed for SROs, school administrators and staff, and other professionals who work with students in campus settings. The SRO curriculum includes an advanced training (i.e., salary incentive) course that has been approved by the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. Officers have the opportunity to earn the SRO practitioner designation with completion of the basic SRO course and an additional 90 hours of FCPTI juvenile-related courses. 299 officers have obtained the designation since its inception in 1988. This year's SRO training activities included:

- 8 training courses
- 156 attendees
- 11 designations awarded
- 192 classroom hours

Victim Services Practitioner Designation Training

Victim training programs are designed for novice and veteran victim advocates and allied professionals to enhance crisis intervention skills and increase awareness of available services and resources. The curriculum consists of victim services practitioner designation classes, advanced advocate training, and issue briefings. The designation program (VSPD) is a three-day course designed to improve the knowledge, skills, and abilities of service provider. This designation is valid for three years and may be renewed by providing evidence of 24 hours of out-service training during the three-year period, including advanced advocate training. Approximately 4900 designations have been awarded since inception of the program in 1995. Advanced advocate training is designed to enhance the skills and abilities of experienced victim service providers. Issue briefings focus on current issues from a local perspective. Victim's training is offered free because VOCA funds. This year's victim services training included:

- 33 training courses
- 1034 participants
- 395 designations awarded
- 551 classroom hours

National Conference on Preventing Crime in the Black Community

This annual national conference is a collaborative effort sponsored by this office to provide a focal point in Florida and around the nation on crime issues in the African-American community. The 2012 conference was held in Tampa, Florida, and attracted 983 participants from 24 different states.

Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys

In January 2007, the division was tasked with administering the Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys, created by the 2006 Legislature. This nineteen-member council is charged with conducting a systematic study of the conditions affecting black men and boys including homicide rates, arrest and incarceration rate, poverty, violence, drug abuse, death rates, disparate annual income levels, health issues and school performance. The goal of the council is to propose measures to alleviate and correct the underlying causes of the conditions described above. The council is mandated to issue an annual report to discuss its findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the Governor, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House. The Council published its inaugural annual report in January 2008.

During the 2006 Legislative Session the Legislature created the Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys to be administratively housed within the Attorney General's office. The Council was created to and is charged with proposing measures to alleviate and correct the underlying causes of the conditions affecting black men and boys including homicide rates, arrest and incarceration rates, poverty, violence, drug abuse, death rates, disparate annual income levels and health issues. The Council is to issue annual reports to discuss their findings, conclusions, and recommendations.

As outlined in 16.615, F.S., the Council shall consist of 19 specific appointees. Each member of the Council is appointed up to a four - year term. The Council is required to meet quarterly with additional meetings to be held at the call of the chairperson or a majority of the Council members. This year's activities included:

The programs operate in Fort Lauderdale, Jacksonville, Miami, Orlando, Saint Petersburg, Tallahassee, West Palm Beach and the Derrick Brooks Charities (Tampa).

The Black-on-Black Crime Prevention Program is a public awareness and education effort to motivate the black community to support, promote and participate in crime prevention programs and activities. The Youth Crime Prevention and Intervention Program targets specific proactive strategies and activities to address and impact the problem of juvenile crime and to foster collaboration and improve communication among various agencies serving youth. This year's activities with these two programs included:

- 33,347 community residents/participants
- 660 crime prevention related meetings, workshops, and conferences
- 776 out-of-agency contacts
- 521 volunteers

Convenience Business Security

Enacted by the 1990 Florida Legislature, The Convenience Business Security Act (§812.171, F.S.) governs security standards for convenience businesses. The Office of the Attorney General is required by statute to review and approve the training curriculum used by convenience businesses for training their employees. Since the inception of the program, FCPTI has trained and certified approximately 400 law enforcement officers who make periodic inspections of the convenience businesses in their geographical areas. Violations are reported to and investigated by this office. Continued noncompliance may result in a fine of up to $5,000 or an injunction for closure of the business.

The Convenience Business Security program has been unfunded since 1992 (See §812.1725-§812.176, F.S.). Bureau staff continued to handle the administrative responsibilities of the Act. During FY 2011-2012 activities included:

- 26 violation complaints processed
- 211 technical assistance responses
- 0 inspectors certified

Crime Stoppers Grant Program

Pursuant to Section 16.555, F.S., the Crime Stoppers Act is designed to enhance public awareness of crime prevention methods and train the public in personal safety principles. Section 938.06, F.S., imposes an additional surcharge of $20 on fines for criminal offenses, which is collected by the clerks of the courts to be deposited into the Crime Stoppers Trust Fund. This funding is apportioned to eligible counties to improve and support the crime fighting programs through official Crime Stoppers organizations.

Number of tips received	58,040
Cases cleared	11,894
Arrests Made	5,463

- In Citrus County, detectives hit four houses, all within a two mile radius, after being alerted by Crime Stoppers and other anonymous tips. Detectives estimate that more than $1 million in marijuana was seized, and approximately $300,000 worth of electricity was stolen due to the grow-house operations.

Thirty-one Crime Stoppers organizations currently serve sixty-three of Florida's sixty-seven counties. Efforts are underway to provide programs and services in the remaining four counties expanding the coverage for all 67 Florida counties. The Crime Stoppers organizations and law enforcement agencies successfully investigate and solve crimes and remove criminals from the communities. The staff works closely with the Florida Association of Crime Stoppers, Inc., and the recipient organizations regarding use of the funds. The staff performs annual training and orientation to assist the organizations in understanding statutory and regulatory spending requirements of state funds. In addition, staff conducts on-site performance reviews on twenty-four grant recipients and desk audits on the remaining seven recipients. All grant recipients receive an on-site monitoring visit a minimum of once every three years, regardless of the grant award amount. This year's activities include:

- 33 Crime Stopper organizations funded
- $4,375,783 awarded

In addition, the bureau determines eligibility for state institutions claims and administers a toll-free information and referral service for victims of crime.

Victim Compensation

Claims are received from crime victims who seek financial assistance for economic loss (lost wages, loss of support, disability), funeral expenses, domestic violence relocation, property loss, and reimbursement of other out-of-pocket and treatment expenses directly related to a crime injury. Program requirements are set forth in §960.065 through §960.14, F.S. (excludes sexual battery examinations)

(*Attached as Appendix F are excerpts from the VOCA Federal Fiscal Year Performance Report, which shows payment statistics by crime category)

Domestic Violence Relocation Assistance

In accordance with §960.198, F.S., this benefit provides financial assistance (up to $1,500) to victims of domestic violence who are seeking to relocate to a safe environment. Each claim must meet the definition of domestic violence pursuant to §741.28(2), F.S., and requires the certification of a State of Florida certified domestic violence center. A Notice of Rights form is included with each denial notice and may act as a petition. The claimant may submit additional evidence with the petition proving eligibility, and based on this new information, the claim may be reconsidered. When a satisfactory petition is received, it is reviewed to determine whether material facts are at issue which would require the evidence to be weighed by an impartial hearing officer in an evidentiary hearing.
